Professional Women Photographers 2008 Student Awards

202East
202 East 77th Street.
New York, NY

On March 31, 2006 6:00 – 9:00 pm, Professional Women Photographers 2008 Student Awards will be exhibiting our fourth exhibition and awards ceremony.

The Student Awards program was created in 2005 by PWP to honor and assist young women attending New York City public high schools who have displayed an interest and affinity for photography. The program will help promote the next generation of women photographers, will stimulate more young women to pursue photography and to provide these enthusiast female photographers with encouragement and support for their future photographic pursuits

Starting in its third year, 2007, PWP opened the awards to all young women attending high school. Awards are in two categories; the 9th and 10th grades and 11th and 12th grades. A total of 4 winners from each category will be awarded first, second, third prizes and one honorable mention.

Jurors for this year's awards are David H. Wells, the Narrative Photographer and Lighting Expert, David Lowe, Assistant to the Photography Curator at the New York Public Library, and Jerry Fetzer, a member of Sotheby's Photography Department.
