PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lecture:

Photographer Cynthia Matthews

Thursday, May 7th, 2009

Presented By Professional Woman Photographers at

Pratt Institute
144 West 14th Street
New York NY 10011
6:15 - 9pm
$10 admission for non-members.

Cynthia Matthews is a nationally recognized photographer whose work has been widely published in books and periodicals, exhibited in group and solo shows and acquired by collectors, museums and corporations. One of her on-going passions is working in black and white to explore the quiet drama of New York City in the snow. A monograph featuring this work is anticipated in 2004. She has traveled the globe for corporate and editorial clients; most notably, Town & Country magazine where she has produced over 50 feature stories, capturing the moods and lifestyles of the sporting world. In addition to covering stag hunting, horse racing, bird dog trials and other sporting events, she has worked in China, Morocco and Africa. Cynthia continues to embrace the craft of photography; she prints and tones her own black and white work and is unabashedly biased toward the classical printing processes.
