PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PWP Builds New Website Specifically For It's WOMEN PHOTOGRAPHERS

May 20, 2009

Professional Women Photographers'
Board of Directors and Web Committee

Present: The New PWP Website

<http://www.pwponline.org>

Director of Communications for PWP, photographer and Imaging Director of Heilbrunn Timeline of Art History MMA, Jackie Neale Chadwick, coordinated, conceptualized, and produced the brand new Professional Women Photographers' website overhaul. In cooperation with its volunteer website committee, programmer Michael Southwell, and designer Adam shields, PWP underwent a beautiful and dynamic facelift of its website and recreation of its backend technologies.

Added features to PWP's website include a brand new Photographer's Portfolio and Profile view to enable public perusal of the amazing talents of PWP's membership, a brand new robust search engine of its entire membership of photographers for art buyers, curators, art directors, editors, and other creatives in search of women photographers, a brand new calendar view of all of Professional Women Photographers' latest events, lectures, exhibitions, and workshops that are open to the public as well as their membership, and introduces an all new online system for joining, renewing, sponsoring, and donating to the Professional Women Photographers organization.

Professional Women Photographers is all volunteer organization, and acknowledges the efforts and talents put forward by its website committee and Board of Directors for this project. PWP's website boasts the membership of photographers and artists, Director/Producer Jackie Neale Chadwick, Sheri Lyn Behr, Ruth Gitto, Elsa Blum, Darly-Ann Saunders, Anne Benvenuto, and President Madeline Ring. PWP's dedicated Board of Directors thanks each of these amazing individuals for their dedication and hard work.

Professional Women Photographers' new website is due to launch on May 20, 2009 on an internet consul nearest you.
